

NLP Advanced Master Practitioner

NLP Advanced Master Practitioner Programme

NEW: An Advanced Master Practitioner program (from the ALL the areas of NLP)

NEW AND UNPRECEDENTED: Advanced NLP Master Practitioner 2011

So, you've reached the end of your Master Practitioners course, you're bursting full of information skills and techniques, and now what do you do? What happens next?

This programme is an opportunity to take your skills to an unprecedented level and become an Advanced Master Practitioner, not licensed nor approved by the Society of NLP. This is the course they don't want you to learn and won't offer. This the R&Dical approach, the thing that fills the void. And it is only available for those curious enough to move away from the course like delivery and develop a new way of thinking.

This is not a course as such, more a year long exploration building on the known to adventure into the unknown, to review, research and develop areas of NLP that you may or may not have tapped or stepped into yet! This will be charting the uncharted, exploring the unexplored, developing the not yet developed. Why? Because we can. Explore far more than I can even begin to list below.

If that were not enough, in addition, anything developed will be accredited to those taking part and all revenues procured from any advancements or developments will be shared amongst those contributors.

All of the above plus.... mentoring to boot. So whats on the agenda for the year?:

- ▶ Advanced Sub-Modalities, What NLPers Don't See
- ▶ Special advanced language techniques
- ▶ Values, beliefs, criteria
- ▶ Modelling (including a modelling project)
- ▶ Basis of long term and effective change
